PLACED IN JAIL.JOHN TROUT ARRESTED FOR CUTTING*P. H. S. MORRISON MONDAY NIGHT

Said to Have Confessed the Crime.
He Slept in Corder's Livery Stable on the Night of the Deed—Remanded For Trial.

John Trout, a blacksmith who works at the Rorer mines, about three miles south of this city, was arrested yesterday for attempting to cut F. H.
S. Morrison, esq., Monday night.

After the cutting was done, Trout, it is said, ran into Corder's livery stable, corner of Third avenue and First street, flourishing a knife. He seemed excited and told Mr. James Davis, who is manager of Corder's livery, that he had "cut a lawyer all to pieces, and that four policemen were after him."

As he had not heard of the cutting again, and the man was apparently in a state of intoxication, Mr. Davis paid little attention to his remark and thought he was only joking. He gave him permission, however, to stay all night in the stable, which he did, leaving next morning at 6 o'clock.

After he had been gone some time, Mr. Davis heard of the affair of the night before, and at once remembered the words of Trout when he first came to the stable. He at once went to Mayor Carr's office and told him all that had transpired at his stable the night before. The mayor thereupon examined some colored men employed at the stable, who corroborated the statements made by Mr. Davis, and on this evidence he issued a warrant for the arrest of Trout, and put it into the hands of Officer Pedigo for execution.

Officer Pedigo found Trout in a store at the Rorer mines and called him out and introduced himself, not mentioning, however, that he was on the police force until after he had grasped Trout by the hand. The prisoner tried to escape, but Officer Pedigo put the handcuffs on him and conveyed him to the city jail.

After Trout was incarcerated, he was interviewed by Detective Baldwin, of the Norfolk and Western Railroad company, who is assisting Mayor Carr on the case and to him, it is said, he confessed to having cut Mr. Morrison.

Trout was before Mayor Carr yesterday evening at 4 o'clock and was committed to jail, to be tried on the 23rd inst., or sooner.

-DRIVE WHIST-

A Delightful Entertainment at Mr. E.

L. Greider's Last Night.
Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Greider gave a most elegant "Drive Whist" party last evening to a number of friends at their beautiful residence on Mountain street.

The guests assembled about 9 o'clock and the gathering was most brilliant.
The spacious mansion of Mr. Greider is charmingly adapted, and commodiously arranged for such entertainments as was readily suggested to every one present. Refreshments in great variety were served in an elegant manner after the game was ended.

Stationed on the roomy landing of the hall stairway was the Italian band which rendered sweet music that soon after supper had those so inclined tripping the moments away in a most joyous way.

Among the numerous handsome entertainment given in our social circles during the season just closing, this one will be remembered always by those present with sincere pleasure.

The prizes were as pretty and dainty as possible and were awarded to Miss Mattie Terry and Mr. Moffett. The second prizes were obtained by Misses Mayfield and Antrim and Dr. Gale.

Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Jamison, Mr. and Mrs. Royer, Mr. and Mrs. Moffett, Mr. and Mrs. Hammond, Mr. and Mrs. Budwell, Mr. and Mrs. Bunting, Mr. and Mrs. Churchill, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Gallaher, Jr., Dr. and Mrs. Gale, Mr. and Mrs. Ball, Mrs. and Miss Simmons, Miss Terry, Miss Ott, Miss Pole, Miss Mayfield, Messrs. Winch, Pole, Ferguson, Lee, Simmons, Weisiger, Koehler, Davenport, Welford, Show, Charles Gallaher and Dr. Gordon Simmons.

NO WOMEN NEED APPLYThe State Legislature Says they Shall*Not Practice Law

The bill to allow women to practice in the courts of the Commonwealth came up on its passage and its fate was soon settled.

Mr. Yarrell moved to pass by in the absence of Mr. Peters, the patron of the bill.

Messrs. Echols, Sands, and others opposed a postponement and thought it best to take a vote at once and waste no more time.

Mr. Heaton raised his voice in behalf of the fair sex. The ladies, he declared, having the right to practice law anyhow and no possible harm could come of the passage of the bill.

A Danville judge had declined to grant a license to Mrs. Smith of that city, at whose instance this amending act was introduced, and the gentleman from Loudoun thought a special act should be passed for her benefit if this one failed.

The yeas and noes were called for on the passage of the bill and the vote resulted as follows:

Yeas—Messrs. Acker, Blackstone, Cornett, Folkes, Heaton, Lloyd, Loyenstein, Nance, and Smith—9.
Noes—Messrs. Arthur, Berry, Dudley, Dunn, Echols, Johnson, Jones, Little Moore, Pleasants, Roberts, Sands, Stubbs, Turner, Wickham, Woods, and Yarrell—17.

Mr. Hurt, who was occupying the chair was excused from voting, but he stated that he would vote against the bill if he were on the floor.—

A Nail Through His Hand.

years, while wrestling with a boy in the Lewis addition yesterday, fell on some planks and stuck a nail entirely through his hand.

THE CITY COUNCIL.The Business Transacted at Its*Regular Meeting Last Night.

An adjourned meeting of the city council was held last night, with President Evans in the chair.

Messrs. Andrews, Buckner, Han-thorn, Graves, McConnell, Ruggles, Sheehan, Scott, Trout and Woodward were also present. Mr. Buckner submitted a proposition from the Virginia Improvement company asking permission to straighten the lines of Wells street. It was referred to the street committee with power to act.

J. W. Hartwell, esq., asked for a permit to allow a man named Brown to open a peanut stand on Railroad avenue. The request was referred to fire, water and light committee, with power to act.

Mr. Woodward moved to increase the appropriation of the public property committee from $1,000 to $4,000.
Referred to finance committee with power to act.

A communication was read from the sanitary inspector, asking that two fire plugs be placed at the market house, referred to fire and water committee with power to act.

The public property committee was instructed to make needed improvements at the city hall, including painting.

Permission was granted to Messrs.
W. P. Huff & Co. to lay a side track from the Norfolk and Western track across Norfolk avenue to block No. 1, in the Land Improvement company's property.

A gas lamp was ordered placed on Third avenue, S. W., between Grove and A streets.

The sewer committee was ordered to have a sewer laid on Nelson street from Robinson street to Third avenue.

The city engineer was instructed to establish a grade on Second street between First and Third avenues. He was also ordered to establish a grade on Second street between First and Third avenues. He was also ordered to establish a grade on Third avenue so as to give property-holders an opportunity to lay sidewalks in front of their premises.

The mayor's message was then taken up and that portion relating to the removal of officers Morris and Trout read.

City solicitor J. Allen Watts was called upon to instruct the council as to what course to pursue in regard to the matter.

Mr. Watts stated that the chief of police was a state officer and therefore the city council had no right to take action in the affair, and that the board of police commissioners was the proper tribunal to decide the matter.

Mr. McConnell moved that the whole matter be referred to the board of police commissioners, and the motion was carried.

Mr. Watts, in a neat speech, thanked the council for the honor it had conferred upon him by electing him to the office of city solicitor.

President Evans stated that as it required a two-thirds vote to raise the salary of the judge of the Hustings court, the action of the council at its last session was void, as only six members voted to increase the salary.

The thanks of the council were tendered to General Manager Sands,
company for the use of the Pullman car in which the council attended the funeral of Mr. Henry Gibson at Richmond.

THE BREWERY.How Work is Progressing on This*Important Industry.

Scores of workmen are busy daily pushing to completion the new brewery in the eastern part of the city, and soon another industry will be added to those that furnish employment to Roanoke's busy population.

A TIMES reporter yesterday visited the brewery to ascertain how the work is progressing.

Mr. Louis Shultz, the genial manager of the company, kindly took him through the various departments and explained the uses of the same.

The first-visited was the ice and storage house. This department will contain ten vats, holding 400 gallons each and forty casks, with a capacity of 60,000 bushels. Next is the brew house, 150 barrels a capacity daily. The combined thirty-five-ton ice machine and refrigerator occupy the next room. Two boilers, one, fifty, and one, one hundred-horsepower, are provided for in the next, and the manufacture of ice is carried on in the last building.

The office building has three rooms, and is about completed. The board of directors will hold their first meeting in this house some time during the present week. The stable is also ready, and contains stalls for five horses.

The contract for fencing the grounds has been let, and soon nothing will be lacking but the placing of the machinery in position. A side track will shortly be built from the Norfolk and Western to the brewery, which will greatly facilitate the receiving of company's machinery, one car load of which has already arrived.

The manufacture of beer will be commenced not later than the first of May next. The company have selected a most desirable plot of ground for the location of their plant, the extent of which is about two acres.

Enlarging His Business.

Mr. L. Levine, the dry goods merchant, corner of First avenue and First street, will, about March 1st, rent the store room adjoining the one he now occupies, and will put in a nice line of goods' furnishing goods, besides adding largely to his stock of dry goods.

If you are not a judge of the article which you want to buy, you depend upon the party with whom you are dealing. The Hobbie Music Co., Lynchburg, Va., guarantee each new piano and organ they sell, for five years, and they are perfectly responsible for such warranted.

HIS VIEW OF IT.THE MISTAKES OF THE NOTED INFIDEL.*FOUNDED OUT BY REV. W. E. HALL.

His Address at the Christian Church Last Night—Christianity Alone Ensures Stable Government—Ingersoll's Views.

Rev. William E. Hall, of New York city, spoke at the Christian church last night on "The Mistakes of Ingersoll."

Mr. Hall is a fluent speaker and he held the undivided attention of those present throughout his address.

He compared the vast system of water works of the universe controlled by God to the system which supplies the city of Philadelphia. Ingersoll, he said, would call upon you to bow down to the genius who provided the water, and curse the hand that gave him the original cup to slake his thirst.

Another question which gave Ingersoll a great deal of trouble, he said, is how shall the world be governed.
Ingersoll says by tearing down the churches and blotting out God. "He is mistaken; you can't govern the world in that way. France tried it, but failed and was bathed in a sea of blood in consequence. I'd rather have an ounce of faith than a ton of Bob Ingersoll's frothy speculations."

The church is all in all. Ingersoll is composed of hope, faith and love. The other is the dirt-gospel materialism, which teaches that character is the outcome of circumstances.
I don't care how much Bob Ingersoll preaches about the true and the good, he still stands by the tree of Christianity. I take my stand with George Washington, Queen Victoria, Andrew Jackson and others, who attribute the prosperity of their different governments to the influence of the Bible.

Mr. Ingersoll says every church has a recipe for the salvation of the world, but that it promises nothing now; that the church is sitting with its arms folded awaiting for something, but that there are no potatoes for the poor.

I was in Norfolk some time since and saw an old darkey sitting on the dock. He was as white as tar, his hair was about as straight as the wool on a sheep's back; his teeth were like tomstones, and his feet were simply bends in his legs; a fishing pole was in his hand; his mouth open, and when asked what he was doing, replied, "Waiting for somethin' to turn up."

This seemed to me a pretty good illustration of Bob's opinion of the church, but he is mistaken.

The most sensitive nerve in a man's body is this producing a pocket book.
There was an old man in New York who thanked the Lord that he had been a member of the church high about forty years, and it had only cost him 25 cents.

The church is not stingy, as is evidenced by the building of hundreds of churches, hospitals, etc., yearly.

Does infidelity build any of these?
There is only one that I know of, and that is a little place in Boston called Paine's Hall, and it is rightly named.
Yet Bob says the church does nothing.
The church is in the fore front in all the educational institutions of the country.

One of Bob's pet theories is that he don't accept anything he don't understand. This is the biggest piece of foolishness I ever heard. Do you accept sleep? You don't understand it.

In conclusion, the speaker compared the christian to the wise man who built his house upon a rock, and Bob Ingersoll to the foolish man who built his house upon sand.

Mr. Hall expects to return to the city again some time in June, when a large crowd will no doubt be in attendance to hear him. He is now on a several months' tour of this state, Tennessee and Kentucky.

Congressional Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, February 11.—The debate in fixing a time for acting on the new laws caused considerable excitement in the house today, and resulted in a victory for the democrats.

Vigorous protest against the cutting off the discussion in such short order were made by Messrs. McMillin, Hooker, Springer, McCreary and Flower. But they were of no effect, and Mr. Cannon demanded the previous question, but the house would not sustain this demand, and many republicans voting against it, the demand was rejected by an overwhelming vote of 149 to 53.

Mr. Springer immediately claimed floor, but Mr. Cannon declined to yield it. He proposed either to lose the previous question, or at least to get the indication at what time this year the gentlemen on the other side were willing to close the debate.

Mr. Cannon, of Illinois, called up for consideration the proposed code of rules, and he offered a resolution providing that the general debate shall close at 1 o'clock tomorrow and that, after the debate under the five-minute rule, the previous question shall be considered, as ordered, at 4 o'clock tomorrow.

He asked yeas and nays on his demand for previous question, but not a sufficient number of members arose to enforce this demand, and (amid applause from the democratic side) the Speaker so announced.

Mr. Cameron then yielded the floor, recognizing, as he said, that his colleague, Mr. Springer, was in charge of the resolution. [Laughter.]

The democrats were jubilant over their victory, and as Mr. Springer rose to make the motion he was greeted by many of his colleagues as being in charge of the proposed new code.

Mr. Springer then offered a resolution providing that the general debate should proceed until adjournment tomorrow, after which the code should be considered under five minute rule until 5 o'clock Friday, when the previous motion should be considered as ordered.

This resolution was adopted without objection, and Mr. Cannon good-naturedly crossed over to the democratic side and congratulated his colleague upon its success.

A MOTHER'S DREAM.A Horrible Vision Followed by News of*Her Daughter's Death.

CHelsea, Mass., Feb. 11.—The parents of Alice Roberts, the young actress who died in New York on Saturday night from suffocation caused by the gas in her room being turned on, live in this city, comfortable circumstances. Her father has been employed in the custom house nearly twenty-three years. They were greatly shocked to learn of their daughter's sudden death. The boudoir mistress had telegraphed that Alice was very sick with pneumonia, and very soon afterward came the news of her death.

Mrs. Roberts says that her daughter went on the stage from choice, not from necessity. Her father has been abundantly able to look out for his family, but Alice had a weakness for the stage. After singing in light operas in and around Boston she was engaged by an opera company to travel through the eastern states. This was last November. She sang in Hoboken, so the mother says, and then she had some misunderstanding with the manager and left the company, going to Koster & Bial's.

Mrs. Roberts said that her daughter had never before been away from home for more than a night at a time, and she has worried a good deal over her absence, but Alice had written each night, encouraging letters that the mother's fears were in a measure allayed. Sunday night she dreamed that somebody was trying to kill Alice. This horrible vision awoke her, and it was a long time before she could again sleep. Then the same dream was repeated twice in succession.

Later in the morning the mother received the news of her daughter's death. Arrangements have been made to have the body sent to Chelsea.

Fighting the Cigarette.

BALTIMORE, Feb. 11.—War has again been declared on the cigarette. This time the little smoker's foe are more formidable than heretofore. The Society for the Prevention of Vice Among Children has found an ally in the Tobacco Board of Trade, and they have prepared a bill which, if passed by the legislature, will almost annihilate the business in this state. It provides that a dealer selling tobacco cigarettes must take out an extra license costing $50, and that none others in which deleterious or foreign substances of any kind shall be used in the manufacture shall be sold in this state. This knocks out the paper cigarette, which, it is claimed, cannot be manufactured without the aid of deleterious ingredients. The present law, though in a measure restrictive, has not accomplished its purpose, and it is now proposed that since minors cannot be prevented from obtaining the forbidden weed its sale shall be totally abolished.

To Handle American Cattle.

OTTAWA, Ont., Feb. 11.—The live stock exporters who originated the scheme for shipping American range cattle from Montreal will ask the government for permission to establish in the east end of Montreal harbor a quarantined yard into which American trains could be run, and where cattle could be transferred to steamships carrying no Canadian cattle. Mr. Robert Bickerton says that if the government grants the request the exporters will handle 100,000 American cattle at that port next year, and that Montreal will monopolize the cattle shipping trade of the continent, as the route is preferred by every cattleman in the United States.

He Was Pumped Out.

HOBOKEN, N. J., Feb. 11.—A man in a comatose condition was found lying alongside the gate of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad yard. By his side was a gallon can that held about a quart of kerosene oil. He was carried to the police station, where City Physician Heller pumped about half a gallon of oil out of the fellow.
The patient is Thomas Lee, mate of the Minnie Lawless, of the Manhattan Lighter company's fleet. The vessel is lying at the railroad company's dock. Lee was on a spree, and it is supposed tried to slake his thirst with the oil. He was removed to St. Mary's hospital, where he lies in a critical condition.

On Trial for His Life.

ALBANY, N. Y., Feb. 11.—The trial of Eugene Emery for the murder of Cora Grimes on June 24 last has begun here.
Emery, who is about 44 years of age, was employed as a farm laborer by John Grimes.
He fell in love with Cora, who was but 14 years of age, but she gave him no encouragement. On the day of the murder Farmer Grimes went to Kenyonville, leaving at home his daughter and Emery. The latter made love to Cora, but she refused to listen to him. Emery then procured a stick of wood and without any warning crushed the girl's skull. The man fled, but gave himself up the next day. The defense will be insane.

The Binwaters Disaster.

KINGSTON, N. Y., Feb. 11.—Jacob R.
Slater, his wife and it was supposed, their four children, broke through the ice at Binwaters lakes, near here, and were drowned. It is now learned that the children were not all of the family. Two versions of Slater, aged 17 and 14, a third was grandchild named Terwilliger, aged 9 years and a fourth was a girl named Bush, aged 14 years. The body of Mrs. Slater was recovered. Great difficulty is experienced in grappling for the bodies, as the ice is con-
